

EXECUTIVE CERTIFICATE (TEACHING AND EDUCATION FOR COACHING) SPECIALIST CERTIFICATE A— THE COACH AS AN EDUCATOR

Overview

The AFLCA Executive Certificate (Teaching and Education for Coaching) has been designed by the AFL Coaches Association in partnership with AFL SportsReady to help prepare potential and current coaches to become equipped to teach effectively. This course is applicable for those who can't or do not want to commit to university study. This course will provide some great insight into teaching practice and how this can be used in a coaching environment. The course will use keynote presentations from experienced AFL Coaches combined with hands on workshops from subject matter experts and your own online reflections.

The course will be made up of three (3) 1 day Specialist Certificates. Upon completion of the three (3) Specialist Certificates participants are eligible to receive the AFL Coaches Association Executive Certificate (Teaching and Education for Coaching). In addition participants have the option to complete an assessment giving participants 1 Unit credit in the La Trobe University Masters of Sports Management.
